KENTUCKY HORSE COUNCIL CONTEST WINNER TO RECEIVE I-POD SHUFFLE

Lexington, KY April 7, 2008 – The Kentucky Horse Council announces a t-shirt design contest open to all Kentucky youth age 18 and under. The contest is designed to promote and increase awareness of the Kentucky Horse Council (KHC) and KHC's new Youth membership.

The winner of the contest will be awarded an iPod shuffle. Their design will also be featured on the back of all youth T-shirts for 2008. All KHC youth members will receive the shirts. Entries must be received by May 1, 2008.

"This contest is an opportunity for horse loving youth to use their creative skills and become more involved in the youth activities of the Kentucky Horse Council," stated Madelyn Millard, Board President.

Submissions should be drawn on an 8" x 10" sheet of paper using no more than 2 colors. They can be mailed to the KHC office, postmarked on or before May 1, or submitted online. For contest rules or to submit an original design visit <http://www.kentuckyhorse.org/Youth.shtml>.

ABOUT THE KENTUCKY HORSE COUNCIL - The Kentucky Horse Council is the result of a grassroots effort to combine the voices and interests of all horsemen, in order for horsemen to band together in support of all horse breeds and all disciplines in the state of Kentucky. The Kentucky Horse Council provides educational programs, grants, scholarships, personal liability insurance, trail riding programs, an annual statewide equine industry directory and opportunities for networking with other horsemen across the state of Kentucky.
